More than Just the Mouth

You might think that your dentist is only capable of treating your mouth, teeth, and gums, but many problems elsewhere in your body have their source in your mouth. Temporomandibular joint disorder, known as TMJ <sup>[11]</sup>, can have far-reaching consequences on your overall health, and may be the source of your:

- Headaches <sup>[12]</sup>
- Neck pain
- Back pain
- Face pain
- Ringing in the ears (tinnitus)
- Broken, chipped, or worn teeth
- Tingling in the arms, hands or fingers

We offer TMJ treatment <sup>[12]</sup> that can help get rid of these and other symptoms. We also offer treatment for snoring and sleep apnea <sup>[13]</sup>.
